News Release

Thomas Cook India inspires travellers to join the Yoga Revolution Promotes yoga and wellness packages through its 'Travolution' initiative

Mumbai, June 21, 2019: Thomas Cook (India) Ltd., India's leading integrated travel and related financial services company, is championing the spirit of Yoga with the introduction of "Travolution", on the occasion of International Yoga Day. Giving impetus to physical and mental well-being, its Travolution wellness packages, invite Indians to travel to find inner peace; yoga being an integral component. In support of the Government's drive towards celebrating health and wellness, the company plans to revolutionize holidays into transformational travel via its unique yoga and wellness experiences.

According to Thomas Cook India's internal data, the demand for wellness tourism has grown by over 20% YoY over the last 3 years, highlighting the new age traveller's growing investment in self-care holidays. The touchstone of Thomas Cook India's Travolution initiative is self-discovery and rejuvenation of the senses- by incorporating some of the most powerful yoga practices set against India's pristine locales.

The Company is hence encouraging India to dare to disconnect through detox travel! The domestic market offers strong potential with over 26% growth in demand from metro cities and a 15% from mini-metro and Tier 2 towns. The company's Travolution products have been designed to appeal to a wide range of consumer segments including India's Millennials/young working professionals, couples, Gen S/Seniors, B-Leisure and corporate MICE groups

Thomas Cook India's customized rejuvenation programmes come with a diverse selection of special yoga sessions, ayurveda treatment, art therapy. Some of the best yoga retreats across the country have been selected, including Isola Di Cocco in Poovar, beauty/ anti-aging therapy at The Lake Village, Kottayam, yoga and well-being programmes in Gokarna and naturopathy at Prakriti Shakti near Kochi among others. In addition, Thomas Cook India's portfolio incorporates a plethora of spa sojourns at Thiruvananthapuram, Bangalore, Udaipur, Delhi, Chennai, Varanasi, Vishakhapatnam, etc. Itineraries are inclusive of meals, accommodation, and transport with emphasis on yoga by trained experts, and a variety of wellness programmes such as ayurveda, meditation, spas, natural therapies, consultations and art therapy, coupled with a special satvik diet for a holistic and enriching experience.

Thomas Cook India's wellness packages also focus on India's women travellers, who are seeking personalized experiences that incorporate meditation, yoga, conventional & infra-red sauna, hot tubs & hydrotherapy and luxurious spa treatments.

Mr. Rajeev Kale, President & Country Head – Holidays, MICE, Visa, Thomas Cook (India) Ltd., said, "Yoga offers immense tourism potential - a boon to the Travel & Tourism sector with cascading impact to the country's GDP.

Given the significant 20% YoY demand in wellness tourism that we have witnessed, and in keeping with the Government's drive towards yoga and wellness, our aim is to encourage travellers to embark on a journey of rejuvenation via our Travolution initiative. With Yoga's benefits being passed down to us from ancient Indian texts, Thomas Cook's Travolution empowers customers to celebrate self-care with a hand-picked range of enriching yoga cum wellness offerings across India."
