News Release

Thomas Cook (India) Limited to report one time, accounting income due to reclassification of Qess Corp. stake in its consolidated March 2018 results

Mumbai: April 24th 2018

Thomas Cook (India) Limited (TCIL) today announced that it will report a one-time, non-cash accounting gain in its consolidated financial reporting for the year ended March 31, 2018 as a result of its reclassification of its stake in Qess Corp., from a subsidiary to an associate.

The company's Board at its March 1, 2018 meeting had given the management an approval to explore an internal corporate restructuring exercise. Subsequently, the Board that met on April 23 2018, ratified the management decision to reclassify TCIL's investment in Qess Corp. from a subsidiary to an associate company. Under Ind-AS, TCIL will de-consolidate Qess and TCIL's remaining ownership interest in Qess will be recorded at fair value and presented as an investment in an associate company.
